A Word From the Director, Lincoln Simmons

Imagine being dropped off for an exciting week of summer camp only to discover when that week was up that your entire life was going to be turned upside down. I saw this happen twice this past summer. Once family called to let us know that they were finalizing their divorce and would be informing their elementary age daughter about their decision when camp was over. Another week, a camper's mother passed away while he was at camp, but the wishes of the family were to not tell him until camper pick-up the next day. The amazing part of this story was...\(click to read more\)

CBM National and International Statistics

CBM is continuing to use the ministry of the Cs to minister to children. This past year in the United States, God allowed us to reach 20,000 kids each month through the ministry of CBM's Classes, 6,500 through CBM's different Camping Programs and over 21,000...\(click to read more\)

Tuckaleechee Retreat Center

TRC is home to CBM's National Headquarters and has been a huge blessing in housing CBM National missionaries and interns, offering a serene and beautiful setting for our many CBM conferences and missionary training programs, and supporting CBM's expansion projects. We are working on expanding...\(click to read more\)

CBM National Internship

Since the beginning of CBM's National Internship program in September 2014, we have had 17 graduates. We currently have interns 8 in the program, with 6 more slated to begin in September of 2017! It is amazing to see God raising up the next generation of young people to work alongside our seasoned missionaries. 10 out of the 17 graduates have...\(click to read more\)
